Our pick of this month's highlights, from things to do and seasonal shopping to decor news and the best places to visit

Scentsational

To bring an aromatic ambience into your home, use Jo Malone's Scent Surround, a unique concept that encourages you to infuse rooms with a divine scent and transform the space around you. For more details, visit our Facebook page at SA Garden and Home magazine.

SOFA SO GOOD

In partnership with Mavromac, the Ardmore Design Collector's Qalakabusha Couch is available in a limited edition of only 40. Priced at R55 000, this truly indigenous work of art is upholstered in 100 percent printed linen with African mahogany legs. Visit www.ardmoreceramics.co.za

JEWELLERY WITH HEART

Sealed With a Kiss (SWAK X) designs jewellery and accessories made by young adults, many of whom are affected by HIV/Aids. W2H (Wrist to Hair) doubles up as a stylish bracelet and hair elastic, and their charms come with silk cords or silver chains. They also distribute Italian glass rings (above). Visit www.swakx.com

Festive bling

Add a little sparkle to your Christmas tree or table setting this year with a Swarovski Christmas ornament. We love the elegant twinkle of this refined, modern star design. Visit www.swarovski.com

THE RIGHT STUFF

Effective insulation, sustainability and longevity are a few reasons why certified timber is the most eco-friendly choice for window frames. "Wood has a smaller carbon footprint than other materials," says Charl Jacobz of Swartland. "Well-maintained timber frames can last for decades and can be disposed of in a harmless manner."
